

Communication Panel

Promote inclusivity at your playground with GameTime's Communication Sign. We partnered with Boardmaker, the leader in visual communication tools, to create a panel that makes it easy for everyone to communicate on the playground. Visitors can use the panel to identify the area or activity they want to experience, or describe how they are feeling to their peers. This panel also includes a full English alphabet for users to spell out more specific needs.

FEATURES AND BENEFITS:

- Freestanding sign constructed from durable, low maintenance HPL (High Pressure Laminate)
- Panels include Boardmaker symbols, an industry leader in visual-based cues
- Supports effective communication across different languages and abilities
- Raises inclusion awareness and promotes advocacy
